Non-Citizen Voting in School Board Elections

Shall the City allow a non-citizen resident of San Francisco who is of legal voting age and the parent, legal guardian or legally recognized caregiver of a child living in the San Francisco Unified School District to vote for members of the Board of Education?

YES ←

NO ←

Digest by the Ballot Simplification Committee

The Way It Is Now: The San Francisco Unified School District operates public schools in San Francisco for students from pre-kindergarten through grade 12.

The San Francisco Board of Education oversees the School District, including

- establishing educational goals and standards;
- approving curriculum;
- setting the district budget;
- confirming appointment of all personnel; and
- approving purchases of equipment, supplies, services, leases, renovation, construction, and union contracts.

The Board of Education appoints a superintendent of schools, who is responsible for managing the day-to-day administration of the district.

The Board of Education has seven members who are elected by San Francisco voters to serve four-year terms. Elections for members of the Board of Education are held in November of even-numbered years.

San Francisco residents who are 18 years of age or older, United States citizens, and not in prison or on parole for a felony conviction are eligible to register to vote in San Francisco elections.

The Proposal: Proposition N is a Charter amendment that would allow any non-citizen resident of San Francisco to vote for members of the Board of Education if the resident:

- is the parent, legal guardian or legally recognized caregiver of a child living in the School District, and
- is of legal voting age and not in prison or on parole for a felony conviction.

Proposition N would apply to the November 2018, 2020 and 2022 elections for members of the Board of Education. The measure would expire after the 2022 election unless the Board of Supervisors adopts an ordinance allowing it to continue.

A “YES” Vote Means: If you vote “yes,” you want to allow a non-citizen resident of San Francisco who is of legal voting age and the parent, legal guardian or legally recognized caregiver of a child living in the San Francisco Unified School District to vote for members of the Board of Education.

A “NO” Vote Means: If you vote “no,” you do not want to make this change.

Controller’s Statement on “N”

City Controller Ben Rosenfield has issued the following statement on the fiscal impact of Proposition N:

Should the proposed Charter amendment be approved by the voters, in my opinion, there would be an additional cost, as estimated by the Department of Elections, of a minimum of $160,000 per election to print and distribute voting materials, train poll workers and separately register people who would become eligible to vote in School Board elections. Should the election take place by absentee ballot only, which would require a subsequent ordinance by the Board, costs may be reduced to approximately $110,000, in addition to any costs associated with registration processes.

The amendment would permit non-citizens 18 years of age or older who have children residing in the San Francisco Unified School District to vote in the elections for the School Board. The amendment would sunset on December 31, 2022, but could be extended by ordinance.

This measure requires 50%+1 affirmative votes to pass.

Yes: Avalos, Breed, Campos, Cohen, Kim, Mar, Peskin, Tang, Wiener, Yee.

No: Farrell.

This measure requires 50%+1 affirmative votes to pass.

Proponent's Argument in Favor of Proposition N

Join the San Francisco Democratic Party in STANDING UP for Proposition N: the IMMIGRANT PARENT RIGHT TO VOTE ACT!

Proposition N gives all parents a voice.

- It is essential that we expand parental involvement in our schools. Greater participation is a key element in raising educational achievement, especially in low-performing schools.
- All parents, regardless of citizenship, will have the opportunity to become an integral part of their child's education through the voting process.
- It is estimated that at least 1 out of 3 children in SF public schools has an immigrant parent. Tens of thousands of SF residents would become eligible to vote in School Board elections.

Proposition N helps our students do better in school.

Students of parents actively involved in schools are more likely to:

- Earn higher grades and enroll in higher level programs
- Attend school regularly, improve their social skills, behavior and adaptation
- Graduate and go on to college

Immigrant Voting has a long history in our country.

- For the first 150 years of our nation's history 40 states and territories allowed immigrants to vote and even hold office.
- Over the last three decades, cities and towns in Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts and New York have passed laws allowing immigrants to vote.

Immigrant Voting is legal.

- The US Supreme Court has repeatedly said that citizenship is not required to vote.
- The California Constitution protects the right of citizens to vote, but does not exclude immigrants from voting.
- The California Constitution explicitly authorizes Charter cities such as SF to provide for the manner of electing school board members.

Please join us in voting YES on Proposition N to give all parents a VOICE!

Rebuttal to Proponent's Argument in Favor of Proposition N

UNDER THE OUTRAGEOUS WORDING OF PROPOSITION N, AN ILLEGAL ALIEN ON HIS WAY TO THE AIRPORT TO BE DEPORTED COULD MAIL AN ABSENTEE BALLOT VOTING FOR THE SAN FRANCISCO BOARD OF EDUCATION:

Worldwide, voting has always been restricted to a nation's citizens.

Under rather strange Proposition N – in violation of California's Elections Code – both aliens and illegal aliens having connections with a child attending a private or public school within the San Francisco Unified School District would be allowed to vote for members of the San Francisco Board of Education. The child in a local school could also be an illegal alien. Under Proposition N, it does not matter that both the adult and child might be subject to deportation. Illegal aliens are favored by Proposition N. Vote "NO!" on Proposition N.

WARNING TO VOTERS:

There are two ballot propositions in this election that call for increasing the number of persons who might vote in San Francisco elections. Both proposals, should they be legally enacted, would tend to create new voters who are likely to be very pro-spending and pro-tax increases: Proposition F (16 years old voting) and Proposition N (alien and illegal alien voting). Should Proposition N pass, expensive litigation is almost certain.

Opponent's Argument Against Proposition N

A BAD LEGISLATIVE PROPOSAL – REPEATEDLY DEFEATED AT THE POLLS – THIS ILLEGAL MEASURE CALLS FOR NON-CITIZENS TO BE ALLOWED TO VOTE IN SAN FRANCISCO BOARD OF EDUCATION ELECTIONS:

Like a bad penny, this illegal proposal in violation of the California Elections Code has already been twice defeated by increasing majorities of San Francisco electors – but keeps coming back!!!: It was defeated in 2004 and 2010.

This unwise measure calls for non-citizens and illegal aliens to vote in San Francisco elections for the Board of Education. Vote “NO!” on Proposition N.

This proposal seeks to even allow even illegal aliens on the way to the airport for deportation to cast their absentee ballots for Board of Education as they leave the United States of America.

Needless to say, American citizens living abroad are not allowed to take part in foreign nations’ board of education or other elections.

It remains an open question whether at some future date the United States federal government might consider entering into formal treaties with Canada, Mexico, or other closely allied nations to allow American citizens in those countries and legal foreign aliens from those nations to vote in local board of education, city council, or other elections. These are major federal foreign policy questions...and American citizens should of course be granted equal rights with foreign citizens. Don't vote for this misguided ballot measure.

Rebuttal to Opponent's Argument Against Proposition N

Here are the facts on Prop N:

Proposition N is legal. The US Supreme Court has stated citizenship is not required to vote. The California Constitution protects a citizen's right to vote, but does not exclude immigrants from voting and grants charter cities like SF control over municipal elections.

Proposition N encourages civic participation. Any SF resident who is a parent, legal guardian or caregiver of a child in SF will be allowed to vote on SF School Board elections.

Allowing noncitizen parents to vote in School Board elections is not new. It has been allowed in other cities such as Chicago, New York City and towns in Maryland. While most parents are involved in their children's education through parent groups and School Site Councils, allowing them to fully participate in all of their children's education is a common-sense way to encourage greater family involvement in our schools

Proposition N will improve parental involvement and student success. Children do better in school when their parents are involved in their education, this ultimately results in more successful schools.

Proposition N will improve our local democracy. Allowing everyone to participate in School Board elections is equitable and good for SF. When all stakeholders are able to participate in making decisions that affect their daily lives, democracy is better served, and everyone benefits.

State Elected Officials Say YES on N!

San Francisco is one of the most progressive cities in the world, yet tens of thousands of hardworking parents cannot vote in the school board elections that shape our children's futures. Over the past 30 years, cities across Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts and New York have passed similar laws allowing immigrants to vote. Proposition N will allow San Francisco to be the first city in California to give parents a voice in choosing the most important decisionmakers for their children's schools, while affirming support for our diverse, immigrant communities.

Immigrant voting has a long history in our country. For 150 years, from 1776 until the 1920s, immigrant voting was a common practice in many states, based on the civic goal of integrating immigrants into local communities. During this upcoming historic election with the most anti-immigrant presidential candidate in recent American history, in our city that prides itself for inclusivity and diversity, we need to stand up for our immigrant families.

This November, let's open a door for all parents to shape their children's future. Vote YES on Proposition N!

API Elected Officials Urge San Franciscans to Vote Yes on Proposition N! Let's Give All Parents A Voice

Proposition N authorizes San Francisco residents who are the parents, legal guardians or caregivers for children in the San Francisco Unified School District to vote in elections for the Board of Education, regardless of whether these residents are United States citizens. Over the last 30 years, cities and towns in Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts, and New York have passed similar laws that have allowed immigrant parent voting. San Francisco is one of the most inclusive cities, yet we still have a lot of work to do. Currently, 1 in every 3 children in San Francisco public schools has an immigrant parent. This means a large majority of our schools parents do not have a say in their children's education.

Proposition D will make our schools better by encouraging parental participation, helping our students do better in schools, and increasing accountability.

One common thread in the immigrant experience is that we all want a better life for our children's future. This November let's affirm our unwavering support for our immigrant communities and pass proposition N!

Paid Argument AGAINST Proposition N

NO. NO. NO. NO on Proposition N

This one's a "lulu"!

Twice before we voters rejected ballot measures to allow aliens to vote in school board elections, if and only if, they had a child enrolled in public schools.

Prop N, however, grants voting rights to any immigrant – illegal or legal – regardless of whether the child (no age limit) is in public school or not. Thus, if a child lives in San Francisco, whether attending a private or for-profit school, or being home-schooled, or even attending school outside S.F., the legal or illegal immigrant responsible for that child can vote.

Citizenship becomes irrelevant. So do the laws, which require legal immigrants to pass a citizenship test after 5 years of U.S. residency. A legislative bill to permit aliens to sit on juries was vetoed even by Governor Jerry Brown, no immigrant basher he.

Voting is an American principle and basic democratic right that should be protected, promoted, practiced and earned. Prop. N demeans the value of citizenship – VOTE NO.

Proposition N would permit non-citizens 18 years of age or older who have children in the San Francisco public schools to vote in School Board elections. The right to vote is an essential part of being a U.S. citizen. If someone wants to vote, they should become a citizen. Non-citizens should not be allowed to vote. Vote NO on Proposition N.
